Asha Kirana Charitable Trust

Founder Trustee

June 1999 - Present (22 years 10 months)

Asha Kirana is a registered charitable trust with a 30 bed hospital for care of HIV patients in Mysore. AKCT started as a counselling centre for HIV prevention and care in 1999 and established a full fledged hospital in 2005 providing free care and support to People Living with HIV/AIDS. Starting 2010, it is a A.R.T centre, providing free testing and dispensing ART drugs for PLWA. It is the only NGO run ART centre in the country. The hospital setup in a serene surrounding adjoining a green belt in a one acre plot costing about Rs.2 crores is entirely funded by philanthropists mostly from Mysore. The running expenses are partly funded by the government programs, and other funding organisations. Ten beds are totally free including food and medicines, supported by KSAPS. There is a still a substantial gap in meeting expenses for which the trust constantly seeks donation from individuals and organisations for which 80G receipt is given. I am also the secretary for an Institutional Ethics Committee supervising the ethical issues involved on study on human subjects.
